

Memorandum

TO: Matthias Felleisen
FROM: Luke Bakker and Jack Loar
DATE: December 2, 2018
SUBJECT: Personal Reflection

This semester we found that the most valuable thing that we learned is the value of taking the extra time to think through the design of a component rather than just jumping right into implementation. As an example, in the last assignment we only made a couple of very minor tweaks to our tournament manager code in order to hook it up to the remote component. This was clearly due to the extra time we spent thinking through our tournament manager design.